Kurt--

When I spoke w ASSK, she mentioned she would be going online and asked for our help in getting good advice about what and how to do it. What about asking Alec Ross to work w your team to design apps and other tools for her and take Alec or someone from his team when you next go--which, as I told you, she is eagerly anticipating.

Again, thx for ALL you're doing and the results your leadership is producing. All the best--H
