

Fw: Morning Press Highlights 01/28/I

From: Cheryl Mills millscd@state.gov

RELEASE IN PART
B5

To: Hillary Clinton HDR22@clintonemail.com

Subject: Fw: Morning Press Highlights 01/28/I

From: Baer, Daniel B
To: Mills, Cheryl D
Sent: Fri Jan 28 05:21:34 2011
Subject: Fw: Morning Press Highlights 01/28/I

Fyi.

From: Baer, Daniel B
Sent: Friday, January 28, 2011 05:21 AM
To: Kramer, Douglas R; Austrian, Courtney E; Wharton, David B; Anderson, Laura M; Posner, Michael H; Yamamoto, Donald Y; Patel, Mira D
Subject: Fw: Morning Press Highlights 01/28/I

D

B5

From: OpsAlert
Sent: Friday, January 28, 2011 05:00 AM
Subject: Morning Press Highlights 01/28/I

S/ES-O Morning Press Highlights

Friday, January 28, 2011

0500 EST

MIDDLE EAST

SYRIA

The Syrian government restricted access to Facebook in hopes of avoiding riots like those in Tunisia and Egypt. Syrians have also been unable to access online chat via cell phones. (Jerusalem Post)

ISRAEL

Prime Minister Netanyahu plans to propose several confidence-building measures to the Palestinian Authority (PA) in anticipation of a Quartet statement castigating Israel expected next week. Gestures are expected to include easing the blockade on Gaza, removing roadblocks in the West Bank, and enabling