I think its really solid... Its "whole" as I told [redacted] in that it considers and takes action across the whole community... [redacted] is wanting to be one of those who gets a shout out from the President... He keeps talking about the last CGI and how just a few CEO's were called up or stood with the President and had their efforts used as examples... He keeps asking if he will be one of those... LOL... he's such a Clintonite... And, in reality, he'll likely grow into a real supporter and giver to the foundation, etc with appropriate attention... He knows a good thing when he sees it! O, yes ma'am, I will be at CGI w [redacted]. Can't wait! My first... I had a call yesterday from Kay Warren saying they'd lost their invitation and needed to RSVP. Justin is taking care of it... I'm on a plane headed to St. Louis for the DNC State Chairs / ED's meeting. I'm presenting/teaching on faith and values... I'll be there just till tomorrow... Hope to see you soon...
