Subject: Quick hi

Fun to see you with lots of admirers last night!

I did indeed get together with [redacted] dragging him to the reception and press event celebrating the first responders health and comp bill. Lots of memories, some great, some not! Maloney gave you a specific shout-out to much applause, and then in honesty went on and on and on. [redacted] and I went someplace else and caught up. To my relief and pleasure, he was a delight. [redacted] and we had a truly nice talk.

Also, thanks to John Podesta, we went to Shriver's funeral, a once in a lifetime experience and another chance to hear your husband at his best. As you know, I got my DC start at ACTION, where I met John in '79 and when it ran VISTA and Peace Corps. How lucky I was.

As you may have been told, I am assigned to nose around abt the potential of a push for the Law of the Sea. Had a good check-in with Rich Verma and plan to come back the team to talk more. For just you "guys," Pew is considering making a major commitment to help ratify, and if it does, it means incredible resources for an external coalition with what I have dubbed the "weapons of mass construction."

My best as always xoxo, T
