Subject: Great to see you; thanks for [redacted]

Hi Hillary,

You're busy! Stellarly.

It was wonderful to see you. Re: book, I'm just wrapping up interviews that will allow writing of first chapter and full outline, which I will send you, as mentioned. Really enjoying this. Interviewed Nancy Soderberg later that day; not telling you anything you don't know, but she's tops. Working label for Bruce is "the first indispensable American" in the process. Hoping I can see Ms. Chelsea's paper.

[redacted] has been selected to go to Moscow for 3 wks in June to create and perform in a joint project with Russian actors, sponsored by none other than your dept. The Russian actors just arrived in CA to start the project.

The convertible is heaped with snow but spring does appear to be on its way.

Best to you and yours.
