I thought you'd like this email from Tony Wayne who is US Amb to Argentina. He used to head up Econ Bureau and before that one of the Europe desks. He was always very helpful to us during the WH years. I'm hearing from many of the career people who are very hopeful about your taking over. Many of the retired amb are also offering their assistance should you want it. Paul Charron (former Liz Claiborne) also called to say he'd be happy to be engaged in any way. You have many admirers!

Dear Melanne:

I can imagine that you and many of your colleagues are pretty excited by the possible choice of Senator Clinton as Secretary of State. It would be a big boost to the State Department and those of us career diplomats who hope for the best possible US foreign policy and practice.

I have sent you separately via regular mail a copy of a special supplement by DEF magazine on the Vital Voices summit in Buenos Aires. I continue to receive positive feedback from the summit.

In any case, these are hopeful times, despite all of the challenges ahead of us. I am looking forward to getting a sense of Washington next week, as we are having a regional Chiefs of Mission Conference December 3-5.

With all good wishes,
Tony
