Dear Brooke,

On Tuesday night at 6:30, I am hosting a small dinner at State to discuss Afghanistan. One of the guests will be Rory Stewart. I know you're involved w his foundation to rebuid Kabul. I would love for you to attend as well. In addition to your experience in this critical country, selfishly, I would get to see you!

Pls let me know if you will be able to come. All the best to you, Strobe and your family---
Hillary
