Jan--Cheryl has talked to Margaret (whom I haven't met yet) and intends for her to start working w her next week. We are making lots of progress but it is still frustrating that the process is slow, cumbersome and frustrating. And most maddening after we pick someone, we have lost people to other jobs, to vetting, to personal problems, [redacted]

Hillary,

I am concerned that a week after you emailed me, Cheryl still has been too busy to conclude re Margaret Carpenter for appointments. If it's not Margaret, I will get someone else, but you MUST have someone who knows State/USAID/foreign policy/dev assistance in this function – and fast. Time is not our friend, as you observed.

Nancy and I would like to see you to convey what we've done and where we leave things as we (hopefully) hand off to a full-time person. [REDACTED]

I know you're all "drinking out of a firehose" but surely priority needs to be given to expanding the team to relieve the pressure on Cheryl.

All the best,

Jan
