I know this is right decision. Once I wrote the word optics to you, I knew it immediately.

And I know my dear friend Cheryl will recall that, during our White House partnership, whenever I had the slightest doubts about a judgment to be made, I would go to Cheryl -- and NEVER argue with her. :-)

And always always loved and appreciated her - then and now.

Thx for looking out for me, my friend. I'll tell Cheryl to stand down.

H-

As soon as I wrote last email, I reverted to my old role as your crisis manager and worrier about you, read the word "optics" I suddenly felt - oops.

I am registered under FARA for one or more foreign governments or businesses. I don't think it would look right. I want to avoid any even slight chance of misperception.

So let's not chance it.

How can I describe what a great friend you are....?

I can't.

Best,

Lanny
