US Government UAP-Related Program/Activity Reporting

AARO will be accepting reports from current or former U.S. Government employees, service members, or contractors with direct knowledge of U.S. Government programs or activities related to UAP dating back to 1945*. These reports will be used to inform AARO's congressionally directed Historical Record Report. We will announce when a reporting mechanism is available for others to use.

This form is intended as an initial point of contact with AARO; it is not intended for conveying potentially sensitive or classified information. Following the submission of your report, AARO staff may reach out to request additional detail or arrange for an informational interview.

Submit a U.S. Government UAP-Related Program/Activity Report

* By law, AARO may receive all UAP-related information, including any classified national security information involving military, intelligence, and intelligence-related activities, at all levels of classification regardless of any restrictive access controls, special access programs, or compartmented access programs. Moreover, there is no restriction to AARO receiving any past or present UAP-related information, regardless of the organizational affiliation of the original classification authority within DoD, the Intelligence Community, or any other U.S. government department or agency. Any classified national security information may be provided to AARO in a secure location, but may not be provided through this form.

NDAA FY2023, section 1673(b)(1): An authorized disclosure shall not be subject to a nondisclosure agreement entered into by the individual who makes the disclosure; shall be deemed to comply with any regulation or order issued under the authority of Executive Order 13526 (50 U.S.C. 31617 note; relating to classified national security information) or chapter 18 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (42 U.S.D. 2271 et seq.); and is not a violation of section 798 of title 11 18, United States Code, or other provision of law relating to the disclosure of information.

Current Operational UAP Reporting

- Military personnel should report through their command or service in accordance with GENADMIN Joint Staff J3 Washington DC 191452ZMAY23 "Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena Reporting and Material Disposition."
- Civilian pilots are encouraged to promptly report UAP sightings to air traffic control. AARO receives UAP-related Pilot Reports (PIREPs) from the Federal Aviation Administration.

A site visitor will click on the "Submit a U.S. Government UAP-Related Program/Activity Report" button that exists (currently disabled) on the AARO Home page to open the new AARO UAP Reporting Information webpage shown on the following pages.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO REPORT?

AARO will be accepting reports from current or former U.S. Government employees, service members, or contractors with direct knowledge of U.S. Government programs or activities related to UAP dating back to 1945. These reports will be used to inform AARO's congressionally-directed Historical Record Report.

WHAT SHOULD I NOT REPORT?

Please do NOT submit any information that is potentially classified.

Please do NOT submit general reports of UAP sightings/encounters. Reporting is limited at this time to current or former U.S. government employees, military personnel, or contractors with direct knowledge of U.S. government programs or activities related to UAP dating back to 1945.

Please do NOT report secondhand information or hearsay regarding UAP programs or activities. Please encourage those with firsthand knowledge to come forward and share their information and experiences with AARO.

Please do NOT submit current operational reports of UAP sightings/encounters in the course of your duties as a Service member or federal employee. Please follow the process established by your Service Branch or federal agency to report the information to AARO.

WHAT SHOULD I EXPECT AFTER FILING A REPORT?

Following the submission of your report, AARO staff may reach out to request additional detail or arrange for an informational interview.

I SIGNED AN NDA. CAN I STILL REPORT TO AARO?

Yes. Per the Fiscal Year 2023 National Defense Authorization Act,* individuals may report to AARO without fear of violating the terms of current or previous non-disclosure agreements. However, once an authorized disclosure is made to AARO, individuals are expected to continue protecting information in accordance with the original non-disclosure agreement.

By law, AARO may receive all UAP-related information, including any classified national security information involving military, intelligence, and intelligence-related activities, at all levels of classification regardless of any restrictive access controls, special access programs, or compartmented access programs. Moreover, there is no restriction to AARO receiving any past or present UAP-related information, regardless of the organizational affiliation of the original classification authority within DoD, the Intelligence Community, or any other U.S. Government department or agency.

* NDAA FY2023, section 1673(b)(1): An authorized disclosure shall not be subject to a nondisclosure agreement entered into by the individual who makes the disclosure; shall be deemed to comply with any regulation or order issued under the authority of Executive Order 13526 (50 U.S.C. 31617 note; relating to classified national security information) or chapter 18 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (42 U.S.C. 2271 et seq.); and is not a violation of section 798 of title 11 18, United States Code, or other provision of law relating to the disclosure of information.

WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW ABOUT PROHIBITION ON REPRISAL?

Individuals who make authorized disclosures to AARO are explicitly protected from reprisal under law, per the FY23 National Defense Authorization Act.* If you believe you have experienced reprisal for making an authorized disclosure to AARO, please submit a report to the DoD Office of the Inspector General Hotline, Office of the Intelligence Community Inspector General Hotline, Department of Energy Office of the Inspector General Hotline, Department of Homeland Security Inspector General Hotline, or the IG office of your current or former federal agency.

*An employee of a department or agency of the Federal Government, or of a contractor, subcontractor, grantee, sub-grantee, or personal services contractor of such a department or agency, who has authority to take, direct others to take, recommend, or approve any personnel action, shall not, with respect to such authority, take or fail to take, or threaten to take or fails to take, a personnel action, including the revocation or suspension of security clearances, or termination of employment, with respect to any individual as a reprisal for any authorized disclosure.

Who is eligible to report:

AARO will be accepting reports from current or former U.S. government employees, service members, or contractors with direct knowledge of USG programs or activities related to UAP dating back to 1945. These reports will be used to inform AARO's congressionally directed Historical Record Report.

What not to report:

- Please do NOT submit any information that is potentially classified.
- Please do NOT submit general reports of UAP sightings/encounters. Reporting is limited at this time to current or former U.S. government employees, military personnel, or contractors with direct knowledge of USG programs or activities related to UAP dating back to 1945. In the future, reporting eligibility will be expanded to the general public and include reports of any event related to UAP.
- Please do NOT report secondhand information or hearsay regarding UAP programs or activities. Please encourage those with firsthand knowledge to come forward and share their information and experiences with AARO.
- Please do NOT submit current operational reports of UAP sightings/encounters in the course of your duties as a Service member or federal employee. Please follow the process established by your Service Branch or federal agency to report the information to AARO.

What to expect after filing a report:

Following the submission of your report, AARO staff may reach out to request additional detail or arrange for an informational interview.

I signed an NDA. Can I still report to AARO?

Yes. Per the James M. Inhofe National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2023,* individuals may report to AARO without fear of violating the terms of current or previous non-disclosure agreements. However, once an authorized disclosure is made to AARO, individuals are expected to continue protecting information in accordance with the original non-disclosure agreement.

Privacy Act Statement

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT FOR UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT UNIDENTIFIED ANOMALOUS PHENOMENON (UAP) REPORTING AUTHORITY:

10 U.S.C. 113, Secretary of Defense; 44 U.S.C. 2107, Acceptance of Records for Historical Preservation; Section 1673 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2023 (Pub. Law 117-263).

PRINCIPAL PURPOSE: To manage general correspondence and reporting relating to unidentified anomalous phenomena. Information provided may be used to contact or seek additional information from individuals reporting information relating to such phenomena, including but not limited to any event relating to unidentified anomalous phenomena and any activity or program by a department or agency of the Federal Government or a contractor of such a department or agency relating to such phenomena.

ROUTINE USES: The information solicited may be made available as a “routine use” to appropriate Federal, State, local, territorial, tribal, foreign, or international law enforcement authorities to assist the All-domain Anomaly Resolution Office with authorized reporting of phenomena, to appropriate Federal, State, local, territorial, tribal, foreign, or international agencies for the purpose of authorized scientific study or counterintelligence activities, or for the purpose of executing or enforcing laws designed to protect the national security or homeland security of the United States, including those relating to the sharing of records or information concerning terrorism, homeland security, or law enforcement. A complete list and explanation of applicable Routine Uses is included in SORN DoD-0017, “Privacy and Civil Liberties Complaints and General Correspondence Records,” accessible at <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2023/02/23/2023-03745/privacy-act-of-1974-system-of-records>.

DISCLOSURE: Voluntary; however, failure to provide the information may result in the inability of the All-domain Anomaly Resolution Office to evaluate the information and engage in follow-up communications in furtherance of the authorized reporting or assessment processes.
