Hi Sue,

Soon is probably very soon now, so I'd like to take the opportunity to express my interest in participating in the upcoming off-camera media roundtable by AARO's acting director Tim Phillips on March 6. Can you please add me as an online participant, as I'm not able to attend in person?

I would also greatly appreciate an opportunity to interview him however briefly (by phone or over a video link) for just a quick comment on the historical report as soon as the report is published.

Kind regards,

Dear Sirs,

I would greatly appreciate an opportunity to interview Tim Phillips, the Director of AARO, briefly by phone or a video link.

For your information, I work as senior foreign news journalist for the Finnish Broadcasting Company (YLE), which is a national public service broadcaster, like a combo of PBS and NPR in the U.S.

I have been following the UAP issue during the past couple of years, and I'm looking forward to reading AARO's UAP historical review, which I understand is due to be published any day now.

As soon as the report is published, would it be possible for Director Phillips to spare me a few minutes for comments?

Also, in the future, I would greatly appreciate an opportunity to join online any DOD press availability or briefing on the UAP issue, such as was held in December 2022

Hi, your ears must be burning! No (on weekend) and yes (on NSC). See attached for latest.

Question 1 – do you remember whom it was that Julian Barnes said is now the UAP person at NYT?

Question 2 – I'm working on the press release today. Do you want DNI/ODNI mentioned? Unlike the annual UAP report, the legislation calls for AARO producing the report – but Dir, AARO reports to PDDNI, too, so wanted to check.

Thanks Sue—yeah, there's a bit of challenge here. AARO absolutely should be involved in cUAS efforts in a coordinating role, but they should not/not be the lead. The problem is, the rest of DoD doesn't always think to include them even in the coordinating role—or forgets to mention that they're part of the team when they're engaging certain members of Congress who are convinced they must be part of the team.

In hindsight, this was a prep failure on our part for ASD HD&HA—just mentioning that AARO was part of the extended team looking at these incursions would have solved everything.

Rheanne,

Quick summary:

- This morning PTDO ASD Zimmerman (HD&HA) was joined by RADM Spedero (JS) and Maj Gen Sherman (USAF) in a briefing to SASC members regarding the December events at JBLE and to more broadly discuss drone incursion issues.
- Senators Reed (D-RI), Wicker (R-MS), Shaheen (D-NH), Gillibrand (D-NY), Ernst (R-IA), Cramer (R-ND), Tuberville (R-AL), Rounds (R-SD), Schmitt (R-MO), Cotton (R-AR), Manchin (D-WV), Peters (D-MI), Kaine (D-VA), and Kelly (D-AZ) attended. Not all asked questions and only Sen. Reed stayed for the entirety of the brief.
- The briefing was viewed by members as an informative first step for what is a very complex and concerning problem that must be quickly addressed. Sen. Reed highlighted multiple times that Congress is in part responsible for the confusion with counter-sUAS authorities and that a legislative fix may be required. Sen. Reed also focused on the number of agencies involved and the potential need for a lead USG entity.
- There was an animated response by Sen. Gillibrand to a comment by Ms. Zimmerman regarding there not being a DoD-wide database for cataloging UAS incursions. Sen. Gillibrand believes sUAS should be catalogued by AARO. Ms. Zimmerman briefly mentioned stand-up of the SIG C-UXS during this exchange.
- Sen. Ernst expressed concerns regarding drones being used at the southwest border and dissatisfaction with DHS having lead responsibilities.
- Members expressed an eagerness to legislate on the topic and to see the Department be proactive on cUAS.

Thanks, Heather. Copying below the quick read-out of the AARO briefings from our team in case helpful:

Mr. Tim Phillips, Acting Director AARO, and (b)(6) were joined by Dr. Sean Kirkpatrick in a compartmented brief and a TS//SCI brief to staff on the findings of the Historical Record Report

BLUF: Both briefs were well attended and went well. Dr. Kirkpatrick attended the first brief and the majority of the second brief. Questions were robust in both sessions and the staff seemed appreciative of the information and AARO's work. There are a few due outs.

Session 1: Compartmented Annex Brief to Senior Staff; 1300 - 1400

The session was well attended. Staff Directors and Clerks from all six intelligence and defense committees attended, along with Senate Leadership National Security Advisors (House Leadership NSA's were invited but did not attend). Mr. Phillips delivered prepared opening remarks to convey the key takeaways from the report, before inviting questions from the attendees. Although it seemed most in the room had not had the chance to read the annex in advance of the session, the discussion was robust. Staff asked numerous questions about the individuals AARO interviewed as part of the review, and some of the noteworthy programs to include KONA BLUE. Staff also asked questions to better understand AARO perspectives on risk and CI implications of the findings in the report. DoD SAPCO provided copies of the annex for reference during the brief and Mr. Phillips, Dr. Kirkpatrick, and (b)(6) highlighted different sections during the Q&A session to provide context and additional detail. At the end of the session, staff asked for perspectives and recommendations for countering inaccurate or misleading narratives related to UAP based on the review. The staff were appreciative of the information and thanked the panel for the time.

Session 2: TS//SCI Brief to Intelligence and Defense Committee PSMs; 1400 - 1530

This session was also well attended. 24 PSMs representing all six of the invited committees joined the session. SSCI Minority Staff Director Brian Walsh stayed for the second session. Mr. Phillips again delivered his opening remarks and presented from prepared slides to convey the key findings from the report and provide amplifying detail. Staff began asking questions early on and Mr. Phillips, Dr. Kirkpatrick, and (b)(6) fielded questions as they came up, referring to the slides as needed. PSM questions varied, but recurring themes centered on the number of total people interviewed versus contacted over the course of the review and the supporting documentation, locations visited as part of the review, and plans for future UAPs. Staff also asked numerous questions about the programs highlighted during the presentation to include KONA BLUE. At the end of the session, PSMs thanked the panel for their time and the information.

Following up from Unders a bit ago - the Deputy asked us to flag for you that the Langley topic re: Breaking Defense may be connected to the AARO rollout that occurred this week.
