Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This is the final response to the above-referenced Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, which was originally submitted, on March 19, 2023, to the National Archives & Records Administration (NARA). The FOIA request sought all Records Management Self-Assessment (RMSA) reports submitted to NARA for the past five (5) years (2018-2022).

During FOIA processing, NARA located one hundred and twenty-three (123) pages of U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Department Level RMSA HQ 2018 – 2021 records and one hundred and twenty-one (121) pages of Departmental Staff Offices RMSA 2018 – 2021 records which it referred to USDA for review and release under the FOIA. Please note that the 2022 RMSA forms are still being processed by NARA and are not yet available. NARA advised the OIA that you are aware of this.

The USDA's Office of Information Affairs (OIA) processed this NARA referral on behalf of the USDA. The OIA is under the purview of the Office of the General Counsel (OGC) and serves as the focal point for USDA's FOIA program. It provides coordination and ensures agency-wide compliance with the FOIA. Additionally, the OIA processes requests and appeals on behalf of the Office of the Secretary (OSEC); the Under Secretaries; USDA's staff offices; and the Research, Education and Economics and Trade and Foreign Agricultural Affairs mission areas.

Following its review of the responsive records, the OIA has determined to release all two hundred and forty-four (244) pages of RMSA records to you in their entirety, with no FOIA exemptions applied.

You may seek dispute resolution services from the OIA's FOIA Public Liaison, Ms. Melanie Enciso. Ms. Enciso may be contacted by telephone at 202-720-9462, or electronically at Melanie.Enciso@usda.gov or USDAFOIA@usda.gov.

You also have the option to seek assistance from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). Please visit <https://www.archives.gov/ogis/mediation-program/request-assistance> for information about how to request OGIS assistance in relation to a FOIA request. Provisions of

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION (NARA) 2019 RECORDS MANAGEMENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Welcome to the 2019 Records Management Self-Assessment!

Before you begin, please note the following information.

Except where indicated, the questions in this survey are intended to cover all records regardless of format, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3301.

The questions apply regardless of whether your agency's work processes are conducted manually or electronically.

Your answers to the self-assessment questions must be specific to records management activities in your agency. We have added a "not applicable" answer option to some questions. In general, use this option only if a question references an activity or action that is not conducted in your agency because of its size or if you are a Departmental Records Officer and are not responsible for the activity or action. In some cases, if the activity is being done by a departmental records management program, component agencies of that department may answer "Yes."

NOTE: Please note that your responses to questions in this assessment may be subject to public release pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). However, we will not release responses to questions that contain detailed descriptions of agency activities.

NARA reserves the right to follow up with agencies to obtain additional information and/or documentation that supports their answers to the questions in this self-assessment.

As in previous years we will be conducting a validation process. Your agency may be selected at random to provide additional documentation and/or take part in interviews to discuss your records management program activities.

If you have any questions about this self-assessment or need additional information to answer a question(s), please send an email message to rmsselfassessment@nara.gov.

Section II: Records Management Program – Oversight and Compliance

Agency records management programs must provide for effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business. (36 CFR 1220.30(c)(1))

Internal controls are integral components of an organization’s management that provides reasonable assurance of the effectiveness and efficiency of operations; reliability of financial reporting; and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. (“Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government” (GAO-14-704G), U.S. Government Accountability Office, September 2014.)

Internal controls are:

- Geared to the achievement of objectives in one or more categories—operations, reporting, and compliance;
- Processes consisting of ongoing tasks and activities—a means to an end, not an end in itself;
- Carried out by people—not merely about policy and procedure manuals, systems, and forms, but about people and the actions they take at every level of an organization to effect internal control;
- Able to provide reasonable assurance, but not absolute assurance, to an entity’s senior management;
- Adaptable to the organization’s entire structure—flexible in application for the entire entity or for a particular regional office, division, operating unit, or business process.

Control activities occur throughout the organization, at all levels and in all functions. NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION (NARA) 2020 RECORDS MANAGEMENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Welcome to the 2020 Records Management Self-Assessment!

Before you begin, please note the following information.

Except where indicated, the questions in this survey are intended to cover all records regardless of format, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3301.

The questions apply regardless of whether your agency's work processes are conducted manually or electronically.

Your answers to the self-assessment questions must be specific to records management activities in your agency. We have added a "Not Applicable" answer option to some questions. In general, use this option only if a question references an activity or action that is not conducted in your agency because of its size or if you are a Departmental Records Officer and are not responsible for the activity or action. In some cases, if the activity is being done by a departmental records management program, component agencies of that department may answer "Yes."

NOTE: Please note that your responses to questions in this assessment may be subject to public release pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). However, we will not release responses to questions that contain detailed descriptions of agency activities.

NARA reserves the right to follow up with agencies to obtain additional information and/or documentation that supports their answers to the questions in this self-assessment.

As in previous years we will be conducting a validation process. Your agency may be selected at random to provide additional documentation and/or take part in interviews to discuss your records management program activities.

If you have any questions about this self-assessment or need additional information to answer a question(s), please contact us at rmsselfassessment@nara.gov.

The following series of questions relates to RM Program Controls, Monitoring and Oversight.

Agency records management programs must provide for effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business. (36 CFR 1220.30(c)(1))

Internal controls are integral components of an organization's management that provides reasonable assurance of the effectiveness and efficiency of operations; reliability of financial reporting; and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. ("Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government" (GAO-14-704G), U.S. Government Accountability Office, September 2014.)

Internal controls are:

- Geared to the achievement of objectives in one or more categories—operations, reporting, and compliance;
- Processes consisting of ongoing tasks and activities—a means to an end, not an end in itself;
- Carried out by people—not merely about policy and procedure manuals, systems, and forms, but about people and the actions they take at every level of an organization to effect internal control;
- Able to provide reasonable assurance, but not absolute assurance, to an entity's senior management;
- Adaptable to the organization's entire structure—flexible in application for the entire entity or for a particular regional office, division, operating unit, or business process.

Control activities occur throughout the organization, at all levels and in all functions. They include a range of activities as diverse as approvals, authorizations, verifications, reconciliations, reviews/audits of operating performance, security of assets (limited access to inventories or equipment), and segregation of duties (separate personnel with authority to authorize a transaction, process the transaction, and review the transaction). Monitoring the effectiveness of internal controls should occur in the normal course of business. Periodic assessments should be integrated as part of management's continuous monitoring of internal control, which should be ingrained in the agency's operations. ("2013 Internal Control - Integrated Framework," Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) Executive Summary, May 14, 2013; and OMB Circular A-123, "Management's Responsibility for Enterprise Risk Management and Internal Control," July 15, 2016.)

. Q6. In addition to your agency's established records management policies and records schedules, has your agency's records management program developed and implemented internal controls to ensure that all eligible, permanent agency records in all media are transferred to NARA according to approved records schedules? (36 CFR 1222.26(e))

2023-OGC-03715-F

These controls must be internal to your agency. Reliance on information from external agencies (e.g., NARA's Federal Records Centers) or other organizations should not be considered when responding to this question.

*Examples of records management internal controls include but are not limited to:

- Regular briefings and other meetings with records creators
- Monitoring and testing of file plans
- Regular review of records inventories

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION (NARA) 2021 RECORDS MANAGEMENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Welcome to the 2021 Records Management Self-Assessment!

Before you begin, please note the following information.

Except where indicated, the questions in this survey are intended to cover all records regardless of format, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3301.

The questions apply regardless of whether your agency's work processes are conducted manually or electronically.

Your answers to the self-assessment questions must be specific to records management activities in your agency. We have added a "Not Applicable" answer option to some questions. In general, use this option only if a question references an activity or action that is not conducted in your agency because of its size or if you are a Departmental Records Officer and are not responsible for the activity or action. In some cases, if the activity is being done by a departmental records management program, component agencies of that department may answer "Yes."

NOTE: Please note that your responses to questions in this assessment may be subject to public release pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). However, we will not release responses to questions that contain detailed descriptions of agency activities.

NARA reserves the right to follow up with agencies to obtain additional information and/or documentation that supports their answers to the questions in this self-assessment.

As in previous years we will be conducting a validation process. Your agency may be selected at random to provide additional documentation and/or take part in interviews to discuss your records management program activities.

If you have any questions about this self-assessment or need additional information to answer a question(s), please contact us at rmsselfassessment@nara.gov.

. The following series of questions relates to RM Program Controls, Monitoring and Oversight.

Agency records management programs must provide for effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business. (36 CFR 1220.30(c)(1))

Internal controls are integral components of an organization's management that provides reasonable assurance of the effectiveness and efficiency of operations; reliability of financial reporting; and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. ("Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government" (GAO-14-704G), U.S. Government Accountability Office, September 2014.)

Internal controls are:

- Geared to the achievement of objectives in one or more categories—operations, reporting, and compliance;
- Processes consisting of ongoing tasks and activities—a means to an end, not an end in itself;
- Carried out by people—not merely about policy and procedure manuals, systems, and forms, but about people and the actions they take at every level of an organization to effect internal control;
- Able to provide reasonable assurance, but not absolute assurance, to an entity's senior management;
- Adaptable to the organization's entire structure—flexible in application for the entire entity or for a particular regional office, division, operating unit, or business process.

Control activities occur throughout the organization, at all levels and in all functions. They include a range of activities as diverse as approvals, authorizations, verifications, reconciliations, reviews/audits of operating performance, security of assets (limited access to inventories or equipment), and segregation of duties² (separate personnel with authority to authorize a transaction, process the transaction, and review the transaction). Monitoring the effectiveness of internal controls should occur in the normal course of business.

Periodic assessments should be integrated as part of management's continuous monitoring of internal control, which should be ingrained in the agency's operations. ("2013 Internal Control - Integrated Framework," Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) Executive Summary, May 14, 2013, and OMB Circular A-123, "Management's Responsibility for Enterprise Risk Management and Internal Control," July 15, 2016.)

(36 CFR 1222.26(e))

*These controls must be internal to your agency. Reliance on information from external agencies (e.g., NARA's Federal Records Centers) or other organizations should not be considered when responding to this question.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION (NARA) 2019 RECORDS MANAGEMENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Welcome to the 2019 Records Management Self-Assessment!

Before you begin, please note the following information.

Except where indicated, the questions in this survey are intended to cover all records regardless of format, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3301.

The questions apply regardless of whether your agency's work processes are conducted manually or electronically.

Your answers to the self-assessment questions must be specific to records management activities in your agency. We have added a "not applicable" answer option to some questions. In general, use this option only if a question references an activity or action that is not conducted in your agency because of its size or if you are a Departmental Records Officer and are not responsible for the activity or action. In some cases, if the activity is being done by a departmental records management program, component agencies of that department may answer "Yes."

NOTE: Please note that your responses to questions in this assessment may be subject to public release pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). However, we will not release responses to questions that contain detailed descriptions of agency activities.

NARA reserves the right to follow up with agencies to obtain additional information and/or documentation that supports their answers to the questions in this self-assessment.

As in previous years we will be conducting a validation process. Your agency may be selected at random to provide additional documentation and/or take part in interviews to discuss your records management program activities.

If you have any questions about this self-assessment or need additional information to answer a question(s), please send an email message to rmsselfassessment@nara.gov.

Section II: Records Management Program – Oversight and Compliance

Agency records management programs must provide for effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business. (36 CFR 1220.30(c)(1))

Internal controls are integral components of an organization’s management that provides reasonable assurance of the effectiveness and efficiency of operations; reliability of financial reporting; and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. (“Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government” (GAO-14-704G), U.S. Government Accountability Office, September 2014.)

Internal controls are:

- Geared to the achievement of objectives in one or more categories—operations, reporting, and compliance;
- Processes consisting of ongoing tasks and activities—a means to an end, not an end in itself;
- Carried out by people—not merely about policy and procedure manuals, systems, and forms, but about people and the actions they take at every level of an organization to effect internal control;
- Able to provide reasonable assurance, but not absolute assurance, to an entity’s senior management;
- Adaptable to the organization’s entire structure—flexible in application for the entire entity or for a particular regional office, division, operating unit, or business process.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION (NARA) 2020 RECORDS MANAGEMENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Welcome to the 2020 Records Management Self-Assessment!

Before you begin, please note the following information.

Except where indicated, the questions in this survey are intended to cover all records regardless of format, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3301.

The questions apply regardless of whether your agency's work processes are conducted manually or electronically.

Your answers to the self-assessment questions must be specific to records management activities in your agency. We have added a "Not Applicable" answer option to some questions. In general, use this option only if a question references an activity or action that is not conducted in your agency because of its size or if you are a Departmental Records Officer and are not responsible for the activity or action. In some cases, if the activity is being done by a departmental records management program, component agencies of that department may answer "Yes."

NOTE: Please note that your responses to questions in this assessment may be subject to public release pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). However, we will not release responses to questions that contain detailed descriptions of agency activities.

NARA reserves the right to follow up with agencies to obtain additional information and/or documentation that supports their answers to the questions in this self-assessment.

As in previous years we will be conducting a validation process. Your agency may be selected at random to provide additional documentation and/or take part in interviews to discuss your records management program activities.

If you have any questions about this self-assessment or need additional information to answer a question(s), please contact us at rmsselfassessment@nara.gov.

Section I: Management Support and Resourcing

Management support and a strong positioning of an agency’s records management program in the organizational structure is key to program success. - Do not know
- Not applicable, agency has less than 100 employees
- Not applicable, Departmental Records Officer - this is done at the component level

The following series of questions relates to RM Program Controls, Monitoring and Oversight.

Agency records management programs must provide for effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business. (36 CFR 1220.30(c)(1))

Internal controls are integral components of an organization's management that provides reasonable assurance of the effectiveness and efficiency of operations; reliability of financial reporting; and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. ("Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government" (GAO-14-704G), U.S. Government Accountability Office, September 2014.)

Internal controls are:

- Geared to the achievement of objectives in one or more categories—operations, reporting, and compliance;
- Processes consisting of ongoing tasks and activities—a means to an end, not an end in itself;
- Carried out by people—not merely about policy and procedure manuals, systems, and forms, but about people and the actions they take at every level of an organization to effect internal control;
- Able to provide reasonable assurance, but not absolute assurance, to an entity's senior management;
- Adaptable to the organization's entire structure—flexible in application for the entire entity or for a particular regional office, division, operating unit, or business process.

Control activities occur throughout the organization, at all levels and in all functions. They include a range of activities as diverse as approvals, authorizations, verifications, reconciliations, reviews/audits of operating performance, security of assets (limited access to inventories or equipment), and segregation of duties (separate personnel with authority to authorize a transaction, process the transaction, and review the transaction). Monitoring the effectiveness of internal controls should occur in the normal course of business. Periodic assessments should be integrated as part of management's continuous monitoring of internal control, which should be ingrained in the agency's operations. ("2013 Internal Control - Integrated Framework," Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) Executive Summary, May 14, 2013; and OMB Circular A-123, "Management's Responsibility for Enterprise Risk Management and Internal Control," July 15, 2016.)

. Q6. In addition to your agency's established records management policies and records schedules, has your agency's records management program developed and implemented internal controls to ensure that all eligible, permanent agency records in all media are transferred to NARA according to approved records schedules? (36 CFR 1222.26(e))

2023-OGC-03715-F

These controls must be internal to your agency. Reliance on information from external agencies (e.g., NARA's Federal Records Centers) or other organizations should not be considered when responding to this question.

*Examples of records management internal controls include but are not limited to:

- Regular briefings and other meetings with records creators
- Monitoring and testing of file plans
- Regular review of records inventories
- Internal tracking database of permanent record authorities and dates

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION (NARA) 2021 RECORDS MANAGEMENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Welcome to the 2021 Records Management Self-Assessment!

Before you begin, please note the following information.

Except where indicated, the questions in this survey are intended to cover all records regardless of format, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3301.

The questions apply regardless of whether your agency's work processes are conducted manually or electronically.

Your answers to the self-assessment questions must be specific to records management activities in your agency. We have added a "Not Applicable" answer option to some questions. In general, use this option only if a question references an activity or action that is not conducted in your agency because of its size or if you are a Departmental Records Officer and are not responsible for the activity or action. In some cases, if the activity is being done by a departmental records management program, component agencies of that department may answer "Yes."

NOTE: Please note that your responses to questions in this assessment may be subject to public release pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). However, we will not release responses to questions that contain detailed descriptions of agency activities.

NARA reserves the right to follow up with agencies to obtain additional information and/or documentation that supports their answers to the questions in this self-assessment.

As in previous years we will be conducting a validation process. Your agency may be selected at random to provide additional documentation and/or take part in interviews to discuss your records management program activities.

If you have any questions about this self-assessment or need additional information to answer a question(s), please contact us at rmsselfassessment@nara.gov.

Please do not skip this section. This is your only chance to enter your contact information and the agency for which you are responding.

. The following series of questions relates to RM Program Controls, Monitoring and Oversight.

Agency records management programs must provide for effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business. (36 CFR 1220.30(c)(1))

Internal controls are integral components of an organization's management that provides reasonable assurance of the effectiveness and efficiency of operations; reliability of financial reporting; and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. ("Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government" (GAO-14-704G), U.S. Government Accountability Office, September 2014.)

Internal controls are:

- Geared to the achievement of objectives in one or more categories—operations, reporting, and compliance;
- Processes consisting of ongoing tasks and activities—a means to an end, not an end in itself;
- Carried out by people—not merely about policy and procedure manuals, systems, and forms, but about people and the actions they take at every level of an organization to effect internal control;
- Able to provide reasonable assurance, but not absolute assurance, to an entity's senior management;
- Adaptable to the organization's entire structure—flexible in application for the entire entity or for a particular regional office, division, operating unit, or business process.

Control activities occur throughout the organization, at all levels and in all functions. They include a range of activities as diverse as approvals, authorizations, verifications, reconciliations, reviews/audits of operating performance, security of assets (limited access to inventories or equipment), and segregation of duties⁹⁰ (separate personnel with authority to authorize a transaction, process the transaction, and review the transaction). Monitoring the effectiveness of internal controls should occur in the normal course of business.

Periodic assessments should be integrated as part of management's continuous monitoring of internal control, which should be ingrained in the agency's operations. ("2013 Internal Control - Integrated Framework," Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) Executive Summary, May 14, 2013, and OMB Circular A-123, "Management's Responsibility for Enterprise Risk Management and Internal Control," July 15, 2016.)

. Q6. In addition to your agency's established records management policies and records schedules, has your agency's records management program developed and implemented internal controls to ensure that all eligible, permanent agency records in all media are transferred to NARA according to approved records schedules? (36 CFR 1222.26(e))

These controls must be internal to your agency. Reliance on information from external agencies (e.g., NARA's Federal Records Centers) or other organizations should not be considered when responding to this question.
