

GSA Chief FOIA Officer

May 6, 2021

[REDACTED]

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) appeal number [REDACTED] dated February 3, 2021. Previously, on December 20, 2020, you submitted a FOIA request (which was assigned FOIA number [REDACTED]) seeking the following:

“[a] copy or printout of the YouTube Creator's Page for the GSA, which shows nonpublic videos (videos categorized as Unlisted or Private) on the agency's YouTube account. Specifically, I request a listing of videos on the agency YouTube channel, marked as UNLISTED or PRIVATE. This can be done by displaying only those videos shown as UNLISTED or PRIVATE, using the filter button at the top of the video listings for that page. This record is available from the agency person responsible for the agency's YouTube account.”

On December 20, 2020, GSA replied to your FOIA request stating that:

“In processing your request, responsive records that are draft or reflect the agency's deliberative process are considered pre-decisional in nature and/or attorney-client privileged communications, have been redacted pursuant to FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5).

In addition, pursuant to the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) and (7)(F), which authorizes the withholding of information necessary to protect the physical safety of a wide range of individuals, GSA has determined that releasing information relating to the names of federal agency or agencies that use each GSA federally owned building could compromise security at federal facilities and the safety of persons at these facilities.”

On February 3, 2021, you appealed the adequacy of GSA's response stating the following:

“This is an appeal of the denial in part of my December 20, 2020 request GSA-2021-000423, which sought a printout of the GSA YouTube creator's page for unlisted or private videos. The denial (enclosed) was dated January 12, 2021. I appeal the deletions under exemption b(5) because the exemption b(5) was not specified as to what was the privilege that was being cited for the specific redactions.

If it was the deliberative privilege being cited, then the factual items in the brief description of the video is factual, not opinion, so the deliberative privilege does not apply. The deliberative process privilege largely does not apply to factual matter. It does not appear from appearance that the attorney privilege is not being cited here but even if it were, the attorney privilege would not apply because there is no advice or communications being displayed on the brief video thumbnail description.

More importantly, the records here essentially constitute only a title and maybe a date and a tiny thumbnail photo. This title, date and thumbnail photo do not constitute the type of matter that would properly fall under the exemption. In other words, the records only just mention that a record exists, and does not go into the substance of the record. This should not be withheld. There is no indication that the foreseeable harm test was applied in this case. There is no indication that the presumption of openness provision was applied. There is no indication within this release that segregable releasable records were released within the redacted portions. It was all or nothing for each video. For these reasons, I ask that the decision be reviewed."

After careful consideration of your appeal, GSA grants your appeal and is releasing in its entirety, the GSA You Tube creator's page for the unlisted or private videos.

This letter constitutes GSA's final determination regarding this matter. You have the right to seek judicial review of this determination in the United States District Court in the District in which you reside, have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia, or where the records are located.

As an alternative to litigation, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) has been created under the 2007 FOIA amendments. OGIS was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a nonexclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS by mail at the Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, Room 2501, College Park, MD 20740, via e-mail at ogis@nara.gov or by phone at (877) 684-6448.

Sincerely,

The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.
